Across-the-counter hypnotics: boon, hazard, or fraud? 552 (Edit.)
ACTH and cortisone in cancer therapy, 197
Activation of bedridden patients within limits of his ability, 171
Addiction problems in medical use of narcotic analgesics, 102
Adjuvants, orally effective, new, in management of diabetes mellitus, 635 (Edit.)
Adrenal origin, sex hormone deficiency of, in older men and women; climacteric as adrenopause, 321 (Edit.)
Adrenopause, climacteric as; sex hormone deficiency of adrenal origin in older men and women, 321 (Edit.)
Aging and intelligence, 131
  genetics of, 140
Algesimetry, experimental, problems of, 52
Amputee, elderly, rehabilitation of, 292
Analgesic agents, effect upon pain, 46
Analgesics, narcotic, medical use of, addiction problems in, 102
  new, search for, 59
Androgen therapy of breast carcinoma, 196
Anesthesiologist and management of pain, 96
Angina pectoris; intractable and congestive failure, euthyroid patients with, hypothyroidism induced by I^{131} neurosurgical treatment of, 388 pain of, 341
    premonitory, anticoagulant therapy, 407 prognosis, 426
    twenty-five year follow-up study of 456 patients with, 423
Announcement, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 557
Antiandrogen therapy in carcinoma of prostate, 192
Anticoagulant therapy in coronary artery disease, 402
Anxiety, reduction of, in home care setting, 527
Arthritis, rheumatoid, vitamin C and, 549 (Edit.)
Associations in field studies, use of interview data for detection of, 253
Atomic energy, peaceful uses of, Proceedings of International Conference on, 655 (B. Rev.)

B

Bedridden patient, activation within limits of his ability, 171
Being is belonging; rehabilitation, 212 (Edit.)
Benefits, healthful, of stress, 646 (Edit.)
Biased selection, risk of, in forward-going surveys with nonprofessional interviewers, 240
Bioflavonoids and the capillary, 659 (B. Rev.)
Block, sinoatrial, atrioventricular, and intraventricular, with coronary disease, 452
Blood pressure changes, individual, analysis of; studies in hypertension, 477 measurements, daily, variability of, in same individuals over three-week period; studies in hypertension, 469 studies; comparison of reaction to three tests for hyperreactivity among 204 volunteers, 490
Book reviews, 555, 655
Books received, 220

C

Cancer, curability of, 305 genesis of, 297
  metastatic, control of pain in, 84
  palliative care of inoperable and incurable neoplasms, 186 (Rev.)
  registers, 644 (Edit.)
  research, some developments in, 296 (Rev.)
  statistical approaches to study of, with particular reference to case registers, 589
Carbohydrate metabolism and nutritional state in multiple sclerosis, 283
Cardiac denervation, technique of, 390 infarction, acute, anticoagulant therapy, 402 diagnosis of, laboratory aids in, 546 (Edit.
    management in, current views on certain aspects of, 332
    recurrent, anticoagulant therapy, 406 pain, 340
  rhythms in coronary disease, 451
Case registers, statistical approaches to study of cancer with particular reference to, 589
Chemotherapy of specific neoplasms, 187 of tuberculosis, 609
Cholesterol in diet in coronary heart disease, 368
  plasma, in man, practical method for reduction of, 461
Cholesterol-lipoprotein system in development of coronary heart disease, 365
Chopin, Frederick, history of therapy of tuberculosis and case of, 661 (B. Rev.)

Ciba Foundation symposium on experimental tuberculosis, bacillus and host; addendum on experimental leprosy, 555 (B. Rev.)
Climacteric as adrenopause; sex hormone deficiency of adrenal origin in older men and women, 321 (Edit.)
Clinical conference on chronic pericardial effusion, 535
Chronic ulcerative colitis, prognosis in, 267
Chronically ill patient, basic medical principles in treatment of, 170
Colitis, ulcerative, chronic, prognosis in, 267
Collapse therapy in tuberculosis, 620
Comparison of specific symptom data obtained by nonmedical interviewers and by physicians, 245
Conference, clinical, on chronic pericardial effusion, 535
Congestive failure and angina pectoris, hypothyroidism induced by I^{131} in treatment of euthyroid patients with, 381
Control of pain in metastatic cancer, 84
Coronary artery disease, anticoagulant therapy, 402 heart disease, diet and development of, 364 electrocardiogram and vectorcardiogram in, 434 hot and humid environment in, 350
symposium, 331-460
introductory comment, 331
Cortisone and ACTH in cancer therapy, 197 use of, in chronic ulcerative colitis, 279
Curability of cancer, 305
Current concepts of pain process, 4 views on certain aspects of management in cardiac infarction, 332

D

Decubitus ulcers in bedfast patient, 172
Denervation, cardiac, technique of, 390
Developments in cancer research, 296 (Rev.)
Diabetes mellitus associated with tuberculosis, 627
new orally effective adjuvants in management of, 635 (Edit.)
Diagnosis of cardiac infarction, laboratory aids in, 546 (Edit.)
Diet and development of coronary heart disease, 364
in management of cardiac infarction, 337
Doctor and patient and the law, 660 (B. Rev.)
Drug addiction, problems in medical use of narcotic analgesics, 102
Drugs, anticoagulant, in coronary artery disease, 409
in management of cardiac infarction, 337
in treatment of peripheral vascular disease, 327 (Edit.)

E

Effusion, pericardial, chronic, clinical conference on, 535
Elderly amputee, rehabilitation of, 292
Electrical effects of myocardial injury, 435
Electrocardiogram and vectorcardiogram in coronary heart disease, 434
Embolism, recurrent, of intracardiac origin, prolonged anticoagulation of, 408
Emphysema associated with pulmonary tuberculosis, 628
Endocrine therapy in cancer, 192
Environment, hot and humid, influence on patient with coronary heart disease, 350
Epidemiology of essential hypertension, 231
Error, medical, nature of, study in applied medical history, 648 (Edit.)
Essential hypertension, epidemiologic approach to study of natural history of, 231
onset and early course, 221
Estrogen therapy of breast cancer, 195
Euthyroid patients with intractable angina pectoris and congestive failure, hypothyroidism induced by I^{131} in treatment of, 381
Excitability of heart, 556 (B. Rev.)
Experimental algesimetry, problems of, 52 pain, limiting factors, 11
prolongation of life span, 153
Extrapulmonary tuberculosis, therapy of, 625

F

Fat, dietary, in coronary heart disease, 372
Field studies, associations in, use of interview data for detection of, 253
Fifth annual report on stress—1955-1956, 661 (B. Rev.)
Flexion contractures in knees and hips and shortening of Achilles tendon in bedridden patient, 171
Folic acid antagonists in cancer therapy, 190
Forward-going surveys with nonprofessional interviewers, risk of biased selection in, 240

G

Genesis of cancer, 297
Genetics of aging, 140

H

Health, general, and longevity potentials, 148
Healthful benefits of stress, 646 (Edit.)
Heart disease, coronary (See also Coronary heart disease)
symposium, 331-460
kyphoscoliosis and, 499
syphilitic, in male Negro, twenty-year study, 178 excitability of, 556 (B. Rev.)
Hemiplegic patient, paraosteoarthropathy in, description and management, 600
History of therapy of tuberculosis and case of Frederick Chopin, 661 (B. Rev.)
Home care setting, reduction of anxiety in, 527
Hormone deficiency, sex, of adrenal origin in older men and women; climacteric as adrenopause, 321 (Edit.)
Hot and humid environment, influence on patient with coronary heart disease, 350
Hyperreactivity, three tests for, comparison of reaction among 204 volunteers; studies in hypertension, 490

Hypertension, essential, epidemiologic approach to study of natural history of, 231
onset and early course, 221
studies in, I; epidemiologic approach to study of natural history of essential hypertension, 231
II; variability of daily blood pressure measurements in same individuals over three-week period, 469
III; analysis of individual blood pressure changes, 477
IV; comparison of reaction to three tests for hyperreactivity among 204 volunteers, 490
Hyperthyroidism, management of, 216 (Edit.)
Hypnotics, across-the-counter: boon, hazard, or fraud? 552 (Edit.)
Hypothyroidism induced by I^{131} in treatment of euthyroid patients with intractable angina pectoris and congestive failure, 381

I

I^{131}, hypothyroidism induced by, in treatment of euthyroid patients with intractable angina pectoris and congestive failure, 381
Incidence of multiple myeloma, 508
Individual blood pressure changes, analysis of studies in hypertension, 477
Infarction, cardiac, diagnosis of, laboratory aids in, 546 (Edit.)
management in, current views on certain aspects of, 332
myocardial, twenty-five-year follow-up study of 200 patients with, 415
Inoperable and incurable recrudescent neoplasms, palliative care of, 186 (Rev.)
Intelligence, aging and, 131
Intensity of pain, measurement of, 34
Interview data, use of, for detection of associations in field studies, 253
Interviewers, nonmedical, specific symptom data obtained by, compared with that by physicians, 245 nonprofessional, risk of biased selection in forward-going surveys with, 240
Ischemic heart disease, incidence of, 366

K

Kyphoscoliosis and heart disease, 499

L

Laboratory aids in diagnosis of cardiac infarction, 546 (Edit.)
Law, the, doctor and patient and, 660 (B. Rev.)
Leprosy, experimental, addendum to Ciba Foundation symposium on experimental tuberculosis, bacillus and host, 555 (B. Rev.)
